1. Get familiar with the course website, the ELI Orientation, the syllabus, and the course materials. (3 questions)

2. Understand how to use the study guide to learn the course content and prepare for the exams. (3 questions)

3. Understand the plagiarism policies. (1 question)

4. Explain the strategies you must use on the reading assignments. (1 question)

5. Know the 3 virtual components in the laboratory component of the course and describe how to access them. (3 questions)

6. Register yourself in the Connect site.

7. Complete Chapter 1 in the APR CD-ROM with the assistance of the Broyles’ workbook. (6 questions)

8. Explain how to access the optional practices. (2 questions)

9. Describe how to access the Discussion Board. Complete the 2 discussion board assignments after familiarizing yourself with the Netiquette policy. (1 question)